Bene is one of the three eateries available at the Sheraton Bali Kuta Resort, and arguably one of the best Italian restaurants on the whole island. Here, guests can enjoy authentic Italian cuisine either by the poolside or on the hotel's second floor for a majestic ocean vista. The rich wine selection requires special mention here, as 60 choices are available for the discerning wine aficionado. Naturally, the food is of the highest calibre as well, with an extensive array of antipasti, pasta, and scrumptious thin-crust pizza with a superb selection of toppings, as well as Italian classics such as gnocchi with oxtail sauce.

BALIQUE

Nestled amongst the villas and resorts of southern Bali, Balique restaurant offers a comfortable respite from the chaotic traffic of the main road through Jimbaran. The restaurant is, shall we say, a French "shabby chic" interior from bygone years. A wide range of antiques and curios from all over the world are scattered throughout the establishment, creating a surprisingly soothing décor. The menu is more than satisfactory, with a decent drink and wine list, and a fine selection of food. The seared salmon with ginger in particular is often mentioned in various reviews as being simply divine. Quick and friendly service further cement Balique's spot amongst the very best eateries of Bali.
